I. Remuneration and Nomination Committee Organization and Operation

The company has established a functional committee, the Remuneration and Nomination Committee, under the Board of Directors to assist the Board in fulfilling its oversight responsibilities. The committee has formulated its organizational regulations, which were approved by the Board of Directors and are now in effect.

1.Remuneration and Nomination Committee

The Remuneration and Nomination Committee was established in the fiscal year 2011. The members of the committee are appointed by the Board of Directors, with a minimum of three members, the majority of whom should be independent directors. The committee members elect one independent director to serve as the convener and chairman of the meetings. The main responsibilities of the committee include assisting the Board of Directors in reviewing and evaluating the overall compensation and benefits policies of the company, as well as the performance assessment and compensation of the directors and executives. The committee also proposes amendments to the organizational regulations related to its operation. The composition, number of members, terms, powers, and meeting rules of the committee shall be handled in accordance with the provisions of the company's " Remuneration and Nomination Committee Organizational Regulations."
2. Responsibilities of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee

The members of the committee shall exercise the care of good administrators, faithfully fulfilling the following duties, and be accountable to the Board of Directors. They shall submit their proposals to the Board of Directors for discussion:
A. Formulating and periodically reviewing policies, systems, standards, and structures for the performance evaluation and compensation of directors and executives.
B. Regularly evaluating and determining the compensation of directors and executives, including cash compensation, bonuses, retirement benefits, severance payments, various allowances, and other substantial incentive measures.
