Independent Auditors’ Report

To Wellell Inc.,

Audit opinion

We have audited the consolidated balance sheet of Wellell Inc. and its subsidiaries (The Group) prepared on December 31, 2022 and December 31, 2021, and the consolidated comprehensive income statement, consolidated statement of change in shareholders’ equity, the consolidated statement of cash flow, and the notes to the consolidated financial statements (including a summary of significant accounting policies) covering the periods of 2022 and 2021 until December 31 of the respective fiscal year.

In our opinion, the financial statements as referred in the first paragraph are prepared, in all material respects, in conformity with the “Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers” and the International Financial Reporting Standards, International Accounting Standards, IFRIC Interpretations, and SIC Interpretations(SIC) as endorsed by the Financial Supervisory Commission (FSC), and present fairly the consolidated financial position of the Group as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, and the results of the consolidated financial performance and consolidated cash flows for the year ending December 31, 2022 and 2021.

Basis of Audit opinion

We conducted our audits in accordance with the Regulations Governing Auditing and Attestation of Financial Statements by Certified Public Accountants and the auditing standards. Our responsibility under these standards will be further explained in a paragraph that details the auditor's responsibility of the consolidated financial statements in the Independent auditors' report. The audit team of our firm subject to the auditor's independence ethics and independence rules has complied with the Code of Professional Ethics, and maintains independence from the Group to perform other duties as specified in the Code. We believe that sufficient and appropriate audit evidence has been obtained as a basis to express the opinion of the audit.

Key audit matters

Key audit matters refer to the most important matters, per our judgment, when auditing the 2022 consolidated financial reports of the Group. These matters have been responded to in the course of our auditing the consolidated financial reports as a whole and when the audit opinion is formed. We do not express separate opinions for each individual matter. Per our judgment, the key audit matters that should be communication in the audit report are as follows:

I. Revenue recognition

Please refer to Note 4 (13) of the consolidated financial reports for the accounting policy of revenue recognition. Please refer to Note 6 (14) Revenue from Contracts with Customers for disclosure of relevant information of revenue recognition.

Description of the key audit matters:

The Group's revenues include R/D, production and sales of wound care, respiratory therapy, welfare equipment, and other electronic medical device. As some revenues are from customized products/services and might be subject to various terms of contracts, the testing of revenue recognition becomes one of the most important items to be assessed when auditing the Group's consolidated financial reports.

Response to Audit procedures:

Our major audit procedures for the above key audit matter include analyzing the revenue of the top ten customers that are related parties with significant transaction amounts and the top ten new customers, reviewing material new contracts and understanding the contractual terms to assess whether there are any material anomalies; assessing the reasonableness of the accounting treatment of revenue recognition (including sales discounts and returns). We also evaluated the effectiveness of the design and implementation of the Group's internal control system for revenue, reviewed the Group's delivery terms to customers, and tested the sales samples for the period before and after the year end to assess the correctness of the revenue recognition period.

II. Valuation of inventory

For the accounting policy of inventory valuation, please refer to Note 4 (8) of the consolidated financial reports for details. For accounting estimates and assumptions of inventories. Please refer to Note 5 (1) Valuation of inventories: information on inventories of the consolidated financial reports for details. For description of inventories, please refer to the Note 6 (5) Inventories of the consolidated financial reports for details.

Description of the key audit matters:

Inventory value of the Group is measured at lower cost or net realizable value on the financial reporting date. Since the Group's products are designed specifically to meet the needs of customers and have high add-on value, the probability of inventory loss is very low. However, as some products are customized, if quality is not up to customer's standards they won't be sold as scheduled, and would result in a higher risk for sluggish inventory movement. As loss from sluggish inventory movement is assessed according to inventory category and number of days the inventory being sluggish, the percentage used for provision is at management's discretion. Therefore, valuation of inventory is an item highly regarded when the Group's consolidated financial reports are audited.

Response to Audit procedures:

Our major audit procedures for the above key audit matter include examining whether the provision for loss on inventory valuation and obsolescence had been made in accordance with the provisions of the relevant accounting standards. We also evaluated whether inventories had been correctly attributed to the correct ageing period and analyzed the changes in inventory ageing from period to period to assess the reasonableness of the policy on the provision of inventory obsolescence and whether it was in accordance with the Company's established accounting policies and evaluated the provision of allowance for inventory obsolescence by comparing the information with the actual loss on disposal, and assessed the appropriateness of management's disclosure of the allowance for inventory.

III. Valuation of impairment of goodwill

For the accounting policy of impairment of goodwill, please refer to Note 4 (12) for the impairment of non-financial assets of the consolidated financial reports. For uncertainty regarding accounting estimates and assumptions of goodwill please refer to Note 5 (2) Estimation on Impairment of Goodwill the of the consolidated financial reports. For disclosure of relevant information about goodwill please refer to Note 6 (7) intangible assets of the consolidated financial reports.

Description of the key audit matters:

Wellell Inc. reinvested in Sturdy Industrial Co., Ltd., Apex Medical Limited UK, SLK Vertriebs GmbH Germany and SLK Medical GmbH Germany to expand its distribution base and product line to increase goodwill. Due to the high uncertainty of the recoverable amount of goodwill valuation using future discounted cash flows, we paid special attention to whether the assumption, valuation, and determination of the discount value of future cash flow are appropriate. Therefore, whether the goodwill is impaired is highly concerned when the Group's consolidated financial reports are audited.

Response to Audit procedures:

The main auditing procedures of the above key audit matters include assessment of the future cash flow forecast and the discount rate used in the impairment model, the forecast of future cash flow against historical performance, and the comparison of discount rate with external data to test the impairment of goodwill.

Other Matters

Wellell Inc. also prepared individual financial reports for 2022 and 2021, and we expressed unqualified opinions for these two years for reference.

Responsibilities assumed by the management and governing units on the consolidated financial reports

Responsibility of the management is to prepare the fairly presented consolidated financial reports in conformity with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers as well as IFRSs, IASs, IFRICs, and announcements endorsed by FSC, maintain necessary internal controls in relation to prepare the consolidated financial reports, and ensure that the consolidated financial reports do not contain significant false statements that are attributable to fraud or error.

In preparing the consolidated financial reports, the responsibility of the management is to evaluate the Group's capability as whether it can continue operating as a successful business, the disclosure of relevant matters, the adoption of accounting basis to continue operating, unless the management intends to liquidate the Group or cease to operate, or no other option available except for liquidating or ceasing to operate.

The governing unit of the Group (including the Audit Committee) is responsible for supervising the financial reporting process.

The responsibility of the auditor when auditing the consolidated financial reports

The purpose for auditing the consolidated financial reports is to obtain reasonable assurance as to whether the consolidated financial reports as a whole are free from material misstatement due to fraud or error. Reasonable assurance refers to high assurance. However, an audit performed in accordance with auditing standards is not a guarantee to detect material misstatement of the consolidated financial reports. Misstatements may result from fraud or error. If the misstated amount, be respective or aggregated, can be reasonably expected to influence the user of the consolidated financial reports to make economic decisions, it is considered material.

As part of an audit in accordance with the auditing standards generally accepted, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We have also conducted the following tasks:

1. Identified and evaluated the risks the consolidated financial reports might be materially misstated due to fraud or errors; responded to the identified risks with strategies that were appropriately designed and implemented; obtained sufficient and proper evidence as basis to provide audit opinions. As frauds may involve conspiracy, forgery, deliberate omission, misstatement, or beyond the internal control, the risk of not being able to detect misstatement due to fraud is higher than that caused by the error.
2. Obtained necessary understanding of internal control relevant to the audit so to design appropriate audit procedures commensurate with what is needed at the time of audit. However, please note the purpose is not to express opinion as to whether the internal control of the Group is effective.

3. To assess appropriateness of the accounting policies adopted by the management, as well as whether the accounting estimates and related disclosures are reasonable.
4. Made a conclusion based on audit evidence obtained, determined whether the accounting basis used by the management to carry out business is appropriate, and if there was any event, circumstance, or significant uncertainty, would affect the Group to continue its business. If in our option, there is existing significant uncertainty in such an event or circumstance, we have the responsibility to remind users of the consolidated financial reports to look after relevant disclosures, or revise the audit opinion when disclosure becomes inappropriate. Our conclusion is based on the audit evidence obtained at the date of the auditor's independent report. However future events or circumstances may cause the Group not to have the capability to operate.
5. Evaluated whether the overall statement, structure and content of the consolidated financial reports (including relevant notes), as well as the consolidated financial reports fairly present relevant transactions and events.
6. Obtained sufficient and appropriate audit evidence from financial information of individual entities of the Group to express opinions on the consolidated financial reports. We are responsible for the guidance, supervision and implementation of the Group's audit, as well as the forming of audit opinions.

The matters we communicated with the governing unit include the scope and time frame of the audit, as well as the major findings in the audit (including the significant lack of internal controls identified during the audit procedures).

We have also provided a declaration to the governing unit that our audit team has complied with the independence rules as required by the Code of Professional Ethics for Certified Public Accountant. We have also communicated with the governing unit all matters that might be considered to influence the auditor's independence as well as all other matters (Including relevant protective measures).

We have decided the key audit matters for the Group's 2022 consolidated financial reports for matters communicated with the governing unit. We will make known such matters in the audit report unless the laws and regulations do not allow public disclosure of any particular matter or, in rare cases, we decide not to communicate a particular matter in the audit report, as we can reasonably expect the negative impact from such communication will outweigh the benefit to increase the public interest.

Wellell Inc. and Subsidiaries
Notes to the Consolidated financial statements
Year 2022 and 2021
(Expressed in Thousands of New Taiwan Dollars, except as otherwise indicated)

I. Company History

Wellell Inc. (referred as "the Company" hereafter) was authorized to set up by the Ministry of Economic Affairs in March, 1990, and merged with Ya-Tai Industrial Limited on August 31, 1998. the Company was approved to be listed in TPEx in August, 2001 and traded in January, 2002 by the Securities and Futures Commission, Ministry of Finance (name changed to the Securities and Futures Bureau of the Financial Supervisory Commission, abbreviated as Securities and Futures Bureau). the Company was approved by the Securities and Futures Bureau to be listed on TWSE in October, 2004. the Company and its subsidiaries (referred as "the consolidated company" hereafter) are primarily engaged in the business of manufacturing and sale of medical supplies, import, and export as well as agency services.

II. Financial Statements Authorization Date and Authorization Process

The consolidated financial reports were approved for release by the Board of Directors on March 29, 2023.

III. Application of new standards, amendments, and interpretations

(I) The impact from adopting new standards and Interpretations as approved by FSC for release and amendment

The application of the newly revised amendments to the IFRSs into effect by the consolidated company with an effective date starting from January 1, 2022 did not significantly influence the consolidated financial statement.

- Amendments to IAS 16 "Real Estate Property, plant and equipment - Proceeds before intended use"
- Amendment to IAS 37 "Onerous contracts - cost of fulfilling a contract"
- Amendments to Annual Improvements to IFRS 2018-2020
- Amendments to IFRS 3 on the "Reference to the Conceptual Framework"

(II) Impact on not adopting the IFRSs endorsed by the FSC

The following new amendments to IFRSs were effective from January 1, 2023, with the potential impact described below:

1. Amendment to IAS 12, "Deferred tax related to assets and liabilities arising from a single transaction"

This amendment restricts the scope of recognition exemption. An entity does not apply the initial recognition exemption for transactions that give rise to equal taxable and deductible temporary differences. The Consolidated Company may be required to recognize an equal amount of deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities.

2. Others

The following new amended standards are not expected to have a material impact on the consolidated financial statements.

・Amendments to IAS 1 on "Disclosure of Accounting Policies"

・Amendments to IAS 8 on "Definition of accounting estimates"

(III) Standards and interpretations newly issued and amended but not yet endorsed by the FSC

The standards and interpretations issued and amended by the International Accounting Standards Board (IASB) but not been advised by the FSC may affected to the Consolidated Company:

Newly announced or amended standards	Major amendments	Effective date of IASB announcement
Amendments to IAS 1 "Classification of Liabilities as Current or Non-Current"	Under IAS 1, a liability is classified as current if the enterprise does not have an unconditional right to defer settlement for at least 12 months after the reporting period. The amendment removes the requirement that the right should be unconditional and instead requires that the right must exist at the end of the reporting period and must be material. The amendment clarifies how an enterprise should classify liabilities that are settled by the issuance of its own equity instruments (e.g., convertible bonds).	January 1, 2024

The consolidated company continues to assess the impact of the above standards and interpretations on its financial position and result of operation. The relevant impact will be disclosed after completion of the assessment.

The consolidated company expected that the following new publish and amendment to the standards would not cause significant influence to the consolidated financial statement.

・Amendments to IFRS 10 and IAS 28 on "Sale or Contribution of assets between an Investor and its Associate or Joint Venture"

・Amendments to IFRS 17 "Insurance Contracts" and IFRS 17

・The amendments to IAS 1 "Classification of Liabilities with Covenants"

・The amendments to IFRS 17, "Comparative information for initial application of IFRS 17 and IFRS 9

・The amendments to IFRS 16, "Requirements for Sale and Leaseback Transactions".

IV. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

(I) Statement of Compliance

The accompanying consolidated financial statements have been prepared in conformity with the Regulations Governing the Preparation of Financial Reports by Securities Issuers (referred as the "Preparation Guidelines") as well as IFRSs, IASs, IFRICs, SIC and announcements endorsed by FSC (referred as the "IFRSs Endorsed by FSC").

(II) Basis of Preparation

1. Basis of measurement

The consolidated financial statements have been prepared on a historical cost basis except for the following material items in the balance sheets:

(1) Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss;

(2) Financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive profit or loss; and

(3) Net defined benefit liability is recognized by the fair value of the pension fund assets net of the present value of the defined benefit obligation and the upper limit effects measurement referred by Note 4 (14).

2. Functional Currency and Representing Currency

The functional currency of each entity of the consolidated company is determined based on the primary economic environment in which the entities operate. The consolidated financial statements are presented in New Taiwan Dollars, which is the Company's functional currency. All financial information presented in New Taiwan Dollars has been rounded to the nearest thousand.

(III) Basis of Consolidation

1. Basis for preparation of consolidated financial statements

A reporting entity includes the Company and the entities controlled by the Company (i.e. subsidiaries) in the consolidated financial statements. When the Company is exposed to the variability of returns from involvement with an investee, or is entitled to the variability of returns and has power to influence the returns through the investees, the Company controls the investee.

The financial statements of subsidiaries are included in the consolidated financial statements from the date that control commences until the date that control ceases. Inter-company transactions, balance and any unrealized incomes and expenses arising from inter-company transactions are eliminated in preparing the consolidated financial statements. Losses from the subsidiary should be attributed to the owners' equities and the non-controlling interests, even this would cause the non-controlling interests to have a deficit balance.

The financial statements of the subsidiaries have been adjusted in line with the accounting policy of the consolidated company.

Changes in the consolidated company's ownership interests in subsidiaries that do not result in the company losing control over the subsidiaries are accounted for as equity transactions. Differences between adjustment of the non-controlling interests and fair value of payment or receipts by the non-controlling interests are recognized under equity and attributed to the owner of the Company.

2. Subsidiaries included in the consolidated financial statements.

Note 3: The Company directly and indirectly holds 100% equity interests in Wellell India Private Limited.

3. Subsidiaries not included in the consolidated financial statements: None.

(IV) Foreign currency

1. Foreign currency transactions

Foreign currency transactions are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the dates of the transaction. The foreign currency monetary item at the end of each subsequent reporting period (hereinafter referred to the "reporting date") are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing on that date.

Non-monetary items denominated in foreign currencies held at fair value through profit or loss are translated into the functional currency using the exchange rates prevailing at the time of the fair value measurement date. Non-monetary items denominated in foreign currencies measured with historical costs are translated using the exchange rates prevailing at the time of the transaction date.

Foreign currency exchange differences resulting from currency translation are usually recognized under profit or loss; however, they are recognized under other comprehensive income in the following circumstances:

(1) Equity instruments designated measured at fair value through other comprehensive income;
(2) Financial liabilities designated as hedges of a net investment in a foreign operation within the range of hedge effectiveness; or
(3) Qualified cash flows hedged within the range of hedge effectiveness.

2. Foreign Operation

The assets and liabilities of foreign operation, including goodwill from acquisition and fair value adjustment, are translated to NTD using the exchange rates on the reporting date, revenues and expenses are translated into NTD using average exchange rate and all resulting exchange differences are recognized in other comprehensive income.

When the disposal of foreign operating units leads to the loss of control, joint control, or significant influence, all cumulative exchange differences in relation to that foreign operating unit are reclassified in profit and loss. When the foreign operating unit partially disposed of or sold is a subsidiary, cumulative exchange differences are proportionately transferred to the non-controlling interest in this foreign operating unit. When the foreign operating unit partially disposed of or sold is an associates or joint venture, cumulative exchange differences are proportionately transferred to the profit and loss.

For the monetary receivable or payable items with foreign operating units, if there is no settlement plan and they will not be paid in the foreseeable future, the exchange gain from foreign exchange will be deemed as part of the net investment to that foreign operation and recognized under other comprehensive income.

(V) Classification of Current and Non-current Assets and Liabilities

Assets that meet one of the following criteria are classified as current assets; otherwise, they are classified as non-current assets:

1. Assets arising from operating activities that are expected to be realized, or are intended to be sold or consumed within its normal operating cycle;
2. Assets held mainly for sales;
3. Assets that are expected to be realized within twelve months from the reporting date; or
4. These assets are cash or cash equivalents, excluding restricted cash and cash equivalents and those that are to be exchanged or used to settle liabilities more than twelve months after the reporting date.

Liabilities that meet one of the following criteria are classified as current liabilities; otherwise, they are classified as non-current liabilities:

1. Liabilities that are expected to be paid off within the normal operating cycle;
2. Liabilities held mainly for sales;
3. Liabilities that are expected to be paid off within twelve months from the reporting date; or
4. For liabilities their re-payment date cannot be extended unconditionally to more than twelve months after the reporting date. Terms of a liability that could, at the option of the counterparty, result in its settlement by the issue of equity instruments do not affect its classification.

(VI) Cash and Cash Equivalents

Cash include cash on hand and demand deposits. Cash equivalents refer to short-term, highly liquid investments that are readily convertible to known amounts of cash and which are subject to an insignificant risk of changes in value. Time deposits meeting the definition as mentioned above or used mainly for meeting short-term cash commitment and not for investment or other purposes are reported as cash equivalents.

(VII) Financial Instruments

Accounts receivable are recognized once it is generated. All other financial assets and financial liabilities were originally recognized when the consolidated company becomes one party to the terms of the financial instrument contract. Financial assets (except for accounts receivable containing a significant financing component) or financial liabilities not measured at fair value through other comprehensive income were originally measured at fair value plus the transaction costs directly attributable to their acquisition or issue. Accounts receivable not containing a significant financing component were originally measured at the transaction price.

1. Financial assets

If purchase or sale of financial assets conforms to transaction practices, the consolidated company consistently adopts the trading-date accounting treatment for all purchases and sales of financial assets classified in a similar way.

Financial asset types at initial recognition include: financial assets measured at amortized cost, investments in equity instruments measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, and financial assets measured at fair value through income.

The consolidated company reclassifies the impacted financial assets from the first day of the next report period only when the financial assets management model changes.

(1) Financial assets measured with amortized cost

Financial assets are measured at amortized cost when they meet the criteria below and are not designated to be measured at fair value through profit and loss:

・Hold the financial asset under the business model of collecting contract cash-flow for purpose.

・The cash-flow generated from the financial asset contract terms on a specific date is all for principal and outstanding principal generated interest payment.

Such assets are subsequently measured at amortized cost with the initial recognition amount plus or less the cumulative amortization calculated using the effective interest method and any loss allowance being adjusted. Interest revenue, foreign exchange gain and loss, and impairment loss are recognized as profit and loss. The gain or loss are recognized as profit and loss when derecognizing.

(2) Financial Assets Measured at Fair Value Through Other Comprehensive Income

The consolidated company can make irrevocable commitments at the original recognition point and present the subsequent fair value change of the not held-for-sale equity instrument to other comprehensive income. The previous mentioned options are made on each instrument base.

Equity instrument investments are subsequently measured at fair value. Dividend revenue (unless it clearly represents a recovery of part of the investment costs) is recognized under profit or loss. Other net gains or losses are recognized as other comprehensive income and not reclassified to profit or loss.

The dividend income from equity investment is recognized at the date when the consolidated company is entitled to receive (usually the ex-dividend date).

(3) Financial assets measured at fair value through profit or loss

Financial assets, which are not measured at amortized cost mentioned above or measured at fair value through other comprehensive income, are measured at fair value through income, including the derivatives.

Such assets are measured at fair value, and their net gains or losses (including any dividend revenue and interest revenue) are recognized as profit or loss.

(4) Impairment of financial assets

The consolidated company recognizes the loss allowance for financial assets measured at amortized cost (including cash and cash equivalent, financial assets measured at amortized cost, notes receivable, accounts receivable, other receivables, refundable deposits, and other financial assets, etc.), and expected credit loss on contract assets.

The loss allowance for financial assets below are measured based on 12 months of expected credit loss and the rest are measured based on lifetime expected credit loss:

・Determine the debt securities credit risk is low on the reporting date; and

・The credit risks (such as the risk of a default occurring over the expected life of the financial instrument) of other debt securities and bank deposits do not obviously increase after initial recognition.

The loss allowance for accounts receivable is measured on the lifetime expected credit loss amount.

To determine if the credit risk is obviously increased after recognition, the consolidated company considers information that is reasonable and can be corroborated (not overly high cost or that can be obtained after investment) including qualitative and quantitative information, in terms of history of the consolidated company, credit evaluation, and perspective information analysis.

If the contract receivables are due over 60 days, the consolidated company assumes the financial asset credit risk is obviously increased.

If the contract receivables are due over 365 days or the borrower is incapable of executing its credit obligation for paying the full amount to the consolidated company, the consolidated company deems the financial asset is in default.

Lifetime expected credit losses is the expected credit losses arising from all the potential defaults on financial instruments during the expected lifetime of financial instruments.

The 12-month expected credit losses is the expected credit losses of financial instruments resulting from possible default events within 12 months after the reporting date (or the shorter period if the expected lifetime of the financial instrument is shorter than 12 months).

The longest period for expected credit loss measurement is the longest contract period the consolidated company exposed to the credit risks.

The expected credit loss is the percentage weighted estimate of financial instrument expected lifetime credit loss. The credit loss is measured at the cash collection shortage, e.g. the difference between the collectible cash-flow per contract and the expected collectible cash-flow of the consolidated company. The expected credit loss is discounted at the financial asset effective interest rate.

The consolidated company evaluated the financial assets and the credit impairment based on the amortized cost on every reporting date. If one or multiple unfavorable matters occurred to the financial asset future cash flow estimate, the financial asset credit is impaired. The evidence that the financial asset is credit impaired includes observable information for the matters below:

- Significant financial difficulty to the borrower or issuer;
- Breach of contract, such as arrearage or overdue over 365 days;
- Because of economic or contract reasons related to the borrower's financial difficulty, the consolidated company makes a concession to the borrower which is not considered originally;
- The borrower will probably file for bankruptcy or other finance restructure; or
- The active market of the financial asset vanishes because of financial difficulty.

The loss allowance for financial assets measured at amortized cost is deducted from the carrying amount of assets.

When the consolidated company is unable to predict the financial asset collection reasonably as a whole or partially, the total carrying amount of the financial asset is directly deducted. For corporate customers, the consolidated company individually analyzed when to write off and the amount to be written off on the basis of whether a reasonable expectation of recovery exists. The consolidated company expected that a significant reversal in the amount written off will not occur; however, the financial assets that are written off may be still subject to enforcement activity to conform to the consolidated company's procedure for the recovery of the overdue amount.

(5) Derecognition of financial assets

The consolidated company derecognizes a financial asset only when the contractual rights to receive the cash flows from the asset expire, or the financial asset has been transferred and substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are transferred to other enterprises, or substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership are neither transferred nor retained and the control of the financial asset is not retained.

In the consolidated company's signed transaction, if all or substantially all the risks and rewards of ownership of the financial asset are retained, such transaction will continue to be recognized on the Balance Sheet.

2. Financial Liabilities and Equity Instruments

(1) Financial liability

Financial liabilities are classified and measured at amortized cost or measured at fair value through profit or loss. If the financial liabilities are held for trading, derivatives, or designated at initial recognition, they are classified into the fair value through profit or loss category. Financial liabilities measured at fair value through profit or loss are measured at fair value, and the related net profit or loss, including any interest expense, is recognized in profit or loss.

Other financial liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using the effective interest method. Interest expenses and foreign exchange gains or losses are recognized in profit or loss. Any gain or loss is recognized in profit or loss when other financial liabilities are derecognized.

(2) Derecognition of financial liabilities

The consolidated company derecognizes financial liabilities when, and only when, the company's obligations are discharged, cancelled or expired. When a modification is made to the terms of a financial liability and the cash flows of the liability after modification are substantially differently, the financial liabilities should be derecognized and a new financial liability is recognized at fair value based on the terms after modification.

When derecognizing financial liabilities, the difference between the book value of the financial liabilities derecognized and the consideration paid and payable (including any non-cash transfers or liabilities undertaken) is recognized in profit and loss.

(3) Offsetting financial assets with financial liabilities

Financial assets and liabilities are offset and expressed in net amount in the balance sheet when the consolidated company has a legally enforceable right to offset the recognized amounts and an intention to settle on a net basis or realize the asset and settle the liability simultaneously.

(VIII) Inventories

Inventories are stated at the lower of cost or net realizable value. Costs include the acquiring, production, processing or other costs to make inventories arrive at the place and condition they can be used, and are calculated using weight average method. Costs of finished products and work-in-process inventories include manufacturing expenses allocated with an appropriate ratio based on normal production capacity.

Net realizable value represents the balance with estimated costs required to complete the production and get the products ready subtracted from the estimated selling price.

(IX) Real estate properties, plants and equipment

1. Recognition and measurement

An item of real estate property, plant and equipment is carried at its cost (including capitalized borrowing costs) less any accumulated depreciation and any accumulated impairment losses.

When the material components of real estate property, plant and equipment have different useful lives, it should be treated as a separate item (material component) of real estate property, plant and equipment.

The gains or losses on disposal of real estate property, plant and equipment are recognized in profit or loss.

2. Subsequent costs

Subsequent expenditure is capitalized only when it is probable that future economic benefits associated with the item will flow to the Company.

3. Depreciation

The depreciation expense equals the cost of the asset less the residual value, and through the straight line method, it is recognized in profit or loss over the expected useful life of each component.

Land is not depreciated.

The estimated useful lives of current period and the comparative period:

(1) Buildings and constructions	5~50 years
(2) Machinery Equipment	3~10 years
(3) Other Equipment	2~10 years

The consolidated company reviews the depreciation method, useful lives, and residual values, and makes proper adjustments as necessary at each annual reporting date.

(X) Leases

The consolidated company assesses whether the arrangement is or includes a lease arrangement upon the inception of the contract. If a contract transfer conveys the right to control the use of an identified asset for a period of time in exchange for consideration, the contract is or includes a lease.

1. Lessee

The consolidated company initially recognizes a right-of-use asset and a lease liability at the commencement day of the lease. The right-of-use asset is initially measured at cost, consisting of the amount of the initial measurement of the lease liability, plus any lease payments made to the lessor at or before the commencement date, the initial direct costs incurred, and an estimate of costs to be incurred by dismantling and removing the underlying asset and restoring the location where the asset resides or the underlying asset less any lease incentives received.

The right-of-use assets are depreciated on a straight-line basis over the period from the commencement date of the lease to expiration of its useful life or expiration of the lease term, whichever date is earlier. In addition, the consolidated company regularly assesses whether the right-of-use asset is impaired and accounts for any impairment loss identified, and if the lease liability is remeasured, the right-of-use asset is adjusted accordingly.

Lease liabilities are initially measured at the present value of the lease payments that have not been paid at the commencement day of the lease. If the implied interest rate of the lease is easily determined, the lease payments are discounted to present value using that interest rate. If such interest rate is not easily determined, they are discounted to present value using the incremental borrowing rate. In general, the consolidated company adopts its incremental borrowing rate as the discount rate.

The lease payments included in the lease liabilities are:

(1) fixed payments, including in-substance fixed payments;

(2) variable lease payments that depend on an index or a rate, and are initially measured at the index or rate at the commencement date of the lease;

(3) the amount expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee; and

(4) the exercise price of a purchase option if the lessee is reasonably certain to exercise that option and payments of penalties for terminating the lease.

The lease liabilities are subsequently measured at amortized cost using effective interest method, and are remeasured in the following situations:

(1) there is a change in future lease payments resulting from a change in an index or a rate used to determine those payments;

(2) there is a change in the amounts expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee;

(3) there is a change in the assessment of an option to purchase the underlying asset;

(4) there is a change in the estimate of the options to extend or terminate result in the estimate of the lease term is modified; or

(5) there is a modification in the object, scope, or other terms of a lease.

When the lease liabilities are remeasured because of the above change in an index or a rate used to determine those payments, in the amounts expected to be payable under a residual value guarantee, or in the estimate of the options to extend or terminate, the carrying amount of the right-of-use assets should be adjusted relatively, and if the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset has already been reduced to zero, the remaining remeasurement is recognized in profit or loss.

For modifications that decrease the scope of the lease, the carrying amount of the right-of-use asset is decreased to reflect the partial or full termination of the lease, and the difference from the remeasurement amount of the lease liabilities is recognized in profit or loss.

The consolidated company expressed the right-of-use assets and lease liabilities which do not meet the definition of the investment property as a single-line item in the balance sheet.

For short-term leases and low-value asset leases such as car rentals, and office machine rentals, the consolidated company chose not to recognize the right-of-use assets and lease liabilities. It recognized the relevant lease payments as an expense over the lease term on a straight-line basis.

2. Lessor

When acting as a lessor in a transaction, the consolidated company classifies the lease contract based on whether substantially all the risks and rewards incidental to ownership of the underlying asset have been transferred under the lease contract. If that is the case, the lease contract is classified as a finance lease, otherwise it is classified as an operating lease. In the assessment, the consolidated company considers relevant specific indicators such as whether the lease term is for the major part of the remaining economic life of the underlying asset.

(XI) Intangible Assets

1. Recognition and measurement

Goodwill arising on the acquisition of subsidiaries is measured at cost less accumulated impairment losses.

Other intangible assets with useful lives acquired by the consolidated company are carried at cost less accumulated amortization and impairment losses.

2. Subsequent Expenditure

Subsequent expenditures can only be capitalized when generating probable future economic benefits. All other expenditures are recognized in profit or loss when incurred, including the goodwill developed internally as well as the brand name.

3. Amortization

Except for goodwill, amortization is calculated by deducting the estimated residual value from the cost of the asset's cost. The intangible asset is recognized as profit or loss within its estimated service life using the straight-line method since the intangible asset reaches the recognized state of use.

The estimated useful lives of current period and the comparative period:

(1) Trademarks	15 years
(2) Computer Software	3~5 years
(3) Customer Relationship	3~10 years
(4) Brand Asset Value	10 years

The consolidated company reviews the residual values, useful lives, and amortization method to intangible assets and makes proper adjustments as necessary at each reporting date.

(XII) Impairment of non-financial assets

The consolidated company assesses at each reporting date whether there are any signs indicating that impairment losses may have occurred in the carrying amount of non-financial assets (except for inventories and deferred tax assets). If any such indication exists, the recoverable amount of the asset is assessed. Goodwill is subject to a regular impairment test each year.

For impairment test purposes, a group of assets that generate cash inflows that are largely independent of the cash inflows from other assets or groups of assets represents the smallest identifiable group of assets. The goodwill obtained in a business combination is allocated to each cash-generation unit or group of cash generating unit and expected to benefit from the merger effect.

The recoverable amount is the fair value of the individual asset or cash-generating unit minus the cost of disposal and its value in use depends on which is higher. When measuring the value in use, the estimated future cash flows are converted to the present value at the discount rate before tax and should reflect the current market measure to the time value of money and the specific risks of the assets or cash-generating unit.

If the recoverable amount of an individual asset or cash-generating unit is lower the book value, and impairment loss shall be recognized.

The impairment loss is recognized in the profit or loss immediately and shall first to reduce the carrying amount of any goodwill amortized to the cash generating unit and then to the other assets of the cash generating unit pro rata based on the carrying amount of each asset in the cash generating unit.

The loss of goodwill impairment will not be reversed. Except for the goodwill, non-financial assets measured at cost investments other than the impairment loss recognized in prior periods may no longer exist or decrease when the carrying amount (deducting the depreciation or amortization) of the asset shall reverse rotation amount.

(XIII) Revenue Recognition

Revenue from Contracts with Customers

Revenue is measured at the expected proceeds collection right from goods or services transferred. The consolidated company recognizes revenue when goods or services transferred to customers to meet the contract obligations.

The consolidated company manufactures medical supplies and sells to the markets. The consolidated company recognizes revenue when control rights of goods are transferred. When control rights of goods have been delivered to customers it means the customers own all rights to decide product sales channels and prices and there are no un-executed obligation impacts on customers’ willingness to accept the products. Delivered means the products have been shipped to specific locations and the obsolete and loss risks are transferred to customers and customers have accepted products per sales contracts, the acceptance term has expired, or the consolidated company has deemed all acceptance has been met with objective evidence.

The consolidated company recognizes accounts receivable when goods are delivered because it owns unconditional rights to collect the proceeds at that point.

(XIV) Employee benefit

1. Defined contribution plans

For defined contribution retirement benefit plans, payments to the benefit plan are recognized in profit and loss when the employees have rendered service entitling them to the benefits.

2. Defined benefit plan

All other retirement plans besides the defined contribution plans are defined benefit plans. Net obligation of the consolidated company under a defined benefit plan is defined as the present value of an amount of pension benefits that employees will receive for their services in current period or prior periods. And less the fair value of any plan assets. The rate used to discount is determined by using market yields of government bonds that are denominated in the currency in which the benefits will be paid, and that have terms to maturity approximating to the terms of the related pension liability of the consolidated company on the reporting date.

The defined benefit obligation is calculated annually by a qualified actuary using the projected unit credit method. When the calculation result is in the consolidated company's favor, the assets recognition only includes the present value of economic benefits available in the form of refunds from the plan or reductions in future contributions to the plan. Any minimum funding requirements are considered for present value calculations of economic benefits. If the benefit can be realized during the plan implementation period or at the time when the liabilities of the plan are settled, it is beneficial to the consolidated company.

Remeasurements of the net defined benefit liabilities include (1) Actuarial gains and losses; (2) returns on plan assets (no interests included); and (3) Any change in the effect of the asset ceiling, but excluding interests. The remeasurements of defined benefit liabilities are recognized under other comprehensive income.

The consolidated company shall recognize the remeasurement of the defined benefit plan under other comprehensive income and accumulate the retained earnings. The consolidated company decided that net interest expense (revenue) on the net defined benefit liabilities (assets) is calculated by the net defined benefit liabilities (assets) and the discount rate determined at the start of the reporting period. Net interest expense on the net defined benefit plan and other expenses are recognized in profit or loss.

When the plan is modified or reduced, the benefit changes related to the past service costs or reduced benefits or losses are immediately recognized in profit or loss. When the consolidated company repays the debts, the gains or losses due to settlements of defined benefit plan are recognized.

3. Short term employee benefits

Short term employee benefits obligation is measured at an undiscounted basis and recognized as expenses as related services provided.

(XV) Income Taxes

The income tax for the period comprises current and deferred tax. Current and deferred income taxes shall be recognized as profit or loss except for the items related to corporate merger or recognized directly under the equity and other comprehensive income.

Current income tax includes expected tax payable or tax refundable calculated based on the taxable income and the adjustments to tax payable or income tax refund receivable from prior years. The amount thereof refers to the best estimate of the amount expected to be paid or received measured by the statutory tax rates or tax rate that have been enacted or substantively enacted by the reporting date.

Deferred income tax is recognized for the temporary differences arising between the book value for the purpose of reporting assets and liabilities as well as the tax bases of these assets and liabilities on the reporting date. However, the temporary difference resulting from the following conditions are not recognized as deferred income tax:

1. From an asset or liability originally recognized in a transaction other than a business combination and at the time of the transaction it would not affect either accounting or taxable profit (loss).
2. The consolidated company is able to control the timing of the reversal of the temporary difference arising from investments in subsidiaries and it is probable that the temporary differences will not reverse in the foreseeable future.

Deferred income tax is measured at the tax rate at the reversal of the temporary difference using the statutory tax rate or substantive legislative rate as a basis.

Deferred income tax assets and liabilities of the consolidated company are offset only when all the following conditions are met:

1. When the entity has the legally enforceable right to offset current tax assets against current tax liabilities, and
2. Deferred income tax assets and deferred income tax liabilities are levied by the same taxation authority are of;
   (1) The same taxpaying entity; or
   (2) Different entities, however each entity intends to settle, for the expected recovery of all significant deferred income tax assets and the expected settlement of the deferred income tax liabilities in every future period, at a net basis the current tax liabilities or assets or realize the assets and settle the liabilities simultaneously.

To the extent they may be used to offset future taxable income, the unused tax losses and credits carried to subsequent periods as well the deductible temporary differences are recognized as deferred income tax assets. And they should be reassessed at each reporting date, reduced within the extent of the relevant income tax benefits more likely than not to be realizable, or reversal the reduced amount within the extent of them very likely turning into sufficient taxable income.

(XVI) Earnings per share

The consolidated company lists the basic and diluted EPS attributed to the common stock equity holder of the Company. The basic EPS of the consolidated company is calculated by dividing the profit and loss attributed to the common stock equity holder of the company by the weight average outstanding common shares of the current period. The diluted EPS is calculated by dividing the profit and loss attributed to the common stock equity holder of the Company by the weight average outstanding common shares adjusted with potential effects on diluting these common shares. The potential dilution of common stock of the consolidated company includes convertible corporate bonds and compensation to employees.

(XVII) Segment Information

Operating segment is the component of the consolidated company engaging in business activities from which it may earn revenues and incur expenses (including revenues and expenses relating to transactions with other components). The segment's operating results are reviewed regularly by the chief operating decision maker of the consolidated company pertaining to allocation of resources to certain segments and assess their performance. Each operating segment has its own financial information.

V. Significant accounting judgments, estimations, assumptions and sources of estimation uncertainty

The preparation of the consolidated financial statements shall be in conformity with the preparation guidelines and IFRSs endorsed by FSC and management is required to make judgments, estimates and assumptions that will affect the application of the accounting policies and the amount reported on assets, liabilities, revenues and expenses. Actual results may differ from the estimates.

The management continues to review and estimate the underlying assumption, changes of accounting estimate are recognized in the year the change occurs or in the future period that will be impacted by the change.

The following assumptions and estimates are subject to significant risks of material adjustments to the carrying amounts of assets and liabilities in the next financial year and have reflected the impact of the Covid-19 outbreak. The relevant details are as follows:

(I) Valuation of inventory

As inventory is measured at the lower of cost or net realizable value, on the reporting date the consolidated company assesses the loss of inventory due to normal wear and tear, obsolesce or of no market value, and has the corresponding costs of inventory offset with the net realized value. Inventory valuation is based primarily on an estimate of the need of a product in a specific period in the future. There might be significant changes due to changes of products.

(II) Valuation of impairment of goodwill

The assessment of impairment of goodwill requires the Group to make subjective judgments to identify cash-generating units, allocate the goodwill to relevant cash-generating units, and estimate the recoverable amount in relevant cash-generating units.

VI. Details of significant accounting items

(I) Cash and cash equivalents

	2022.12.31	2021.12.31

(XVII) Financial Instruments

1. Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk of financial loss suffered by the consolidated company as its counterparty breaches the contractual obligations. The credit risk of the consolidated company is mainly from operating activities (accounts receivable and notes receivable).

As the consolidated company has a broad customer base and does not concentrate its sales with a single customer and its sales territory spreads out, the concentration credit risk on accounts receivable is of little concern. The consolidated company adopts a policy to deal only with parties with outstanding reputation. It also periodically evaluates the financial performance of its customers, and if necessary, requests collateral as security to mitigate the risk of financial loss due to default payment. Please refer to Note 6 (3) for information on credit risk exposure of notes receivable and accounts receivable; Other financial assets at amortized cost (including other receivables and time deposits) are financial assets with low credit risk, therefore, the allowance for losses is measured at the expected credit loss amount for the 12-month period. Please refer to Note 4 (7) for the explanation of how to determine the creditworthiness of the Consolidated Company.

2. Liquidity risk

The table below summarizes maturity dates of the company's financial liabilities. It includes estimated interests but excludes impact of netting agreement.

	Carrying Amount	Cash flow from the agreement	Within 6 months	Within 6 ~ 12 months	1~2 years	2~5 years	Over 5 years

The cash flow of the consolidated company analyzed on the maturity date is not expected to be significantly earlier than expected, or the actual amount significantly different.

3. Foreign exchange risk

(1) Risk Exposure of Exchange Rate Risk

Financial assets and liabilities of the consolidated company that are exposed to significant foreign currency exchange rate risk are as follows:

	2022.12.31
	Foreign currency	Exchange rate	NTD
Financial assets
Monetary item
USD	$ 4,018	30.7100	123,393
Euro	3,827	32.7200	125,219
GBP	316	37.0900	11,720
RMB	498	4.4080	2,195
Financial liability
Monetary item
USD	1,487	30.7100	45,666
Euro	5,282	32.7200	172,827
GBP	618	37.0900	22,922

	2021.12.31
	Foreign currency	Exchange rate	NTD
Financial assets
Monetary item
USD	$ 3,465	27.6800	95,911
Euro	1,321	31.3200	41,374
GBP	135	37.3000	5,036
RMB	3,017	4.3440	13,106
Financial liability
Monetary item
USD	$ 3,561	27.6800	98,568
Euro	3,543	31.3200	110,967
GBP	436	37.3000	16,263

(2) Sensitivity analysis

The consolidated company’s exchange rate risk is mainly from cash and cash equivalents, accounts receivable and other receivables, short-term borrowings, accounts payable and other payables denominated in foreign currency and the foreign exchange gain or loss upon translation to NTD. On December 31, 2022 and 2021, when NTD depreciated against USD, Euro, GBP and RMB by 2% and on the condition that all other factors remained the same, the net income before tax in 2022 and 2021 of the Consolidated Company would increase or decrease by NT$422 thousand and NT$(1,407) thousand, respectively. Analyses of these two periods adopted the same basis.

(3) Exchange gains and losses from the translation of monetary items

Since the consolidated company has a wide variety of functional currencies, it adopts the aggregated exposures of the exchange gains and losses information of the monetary items. The losses on foreign currency exchange (including realized and unrealized) in 2022 and 2021 were NT$(6,108) thousand and NT$(653) thousand, respectively.

4. Interest rate analysis

Interest risk exposure of the financial assets and liabilities of the consolidated company is explained in the Note of risk of liquidity management.

The following sensitivity analysis is determined in accordance with the interest risk exposure of the derivative and non-derivative instruments on the reporting date. For floating interest rate liabilities, the analysis is made by assuming the liability amounts on the reporting date are outstanding for the whole year. Staff of the consolidated company reported to key management personnel that the interest rates they reported are with changes of an increase 2% or a decrease of 2%, and this represents a reasonable range of change, as estimated by the management.

If the interest rate increased or decreased by 2%, on the condition that all other factors remained the same, the consolidated company's net income before tax for 2022 and 2021 would decrease or increase by NT$5,907 thousand and NT$7,046 thousand respectively. This is because the loan borrowed by the consolidated company is with a floating interest rate.

5. Other price risks

If the price of equity securities changes on the reporting date (the analysis of two conservative periods adopts the same basis and assume the other factors remain unchanged), the impact on the comprehensive income and loss is as follows:

	2022		2021
Security price of the reporting date	Amount of other comprehensive income after tax	Income (Loss) after tax	Amount of other comprehensive income after tax	Income (Loss) after tax
Increased by 1%	$ 192	-	159	-
Decreased by 1%	$ (192)	-	(159)	-

6. Information on fair value

(1) Category and fair value of the financial instruments

(2) Knowhow to measure fair value of financial instruments that are not measured with fair value.

The methodology and assumptions the consolidated company uses to estimate the financial instruments not measured at fair value are as follows:

Financial liabilities measured with amortized cost

If there is a closing report or quotation to make the deal available, the price for the transaction just closed recently and the quotation price can be used as a basis to estimate the fair value. If there is no market price for reference, the valuation method shall be used for the estimate. The estimate and assumption used for valuation is the fair value estimated by present value of cash flow.

(3) Know how to evaluate the fair value for financial instruments measured at fair value.

(3.1) Non-derivative financial instruments

If quoted prices in active markets are available, they are used as fair value. Market prices announced by major exchanges are bases for fair value of the equity instruments listed in the market.

For financial instruments held by the consolidated company, if quoted prices in active market are available, their fair values are listed in accordance with categories they belong to and their natures as follows:

As mutual fund beneficiary certificates are financial assets with standard terms and conditions and traded in an active market, their fair value is determined referencing the quoted price in the active market.

Except for the above-mentioned financial instruments with an active market, the fair value of the remaining financial instruments is obtained by the valuation techniques. Fair value obtained through the valuation techniques may be referenced to the current available fair value, discount cash flow method or valuation techniques of other financial instruments of similar natures and features, including value obtained through market information calculation model on the consolidated balance sheet.

(3.2) Derivative Financial Instruments

Valuated according to the valuation model widely accepted by the market users. The structured interest rate derivative financial instruments are based on appropriate pricing models or other valuation methods.

(4) Quantitative Information of Fair Value Measurement for the Significant Unobservable Inputs (the third level)

The consolidated company fair value measurement classified as the third level is financial assets measured at fair value through other comprehensive income – equity security investment.

The consolidated company's fair value is classified as the third level provided with single significant unobservable input. The equity instrument investment without an active market only is provided with multiple significant unobservable inputs. The significant unobservable inputs of equity instrument investments without an active market are independent from each other, so no interrelationship exists.

The quantitative information of the significant unobservable inputs is listed as below:

Item	Technique Valuation	Significant Unobservable Inputs	Relationship Between Significant Unobservable Input and Fair Value
Financial Assets Measured at Fair Value Through Other Comprehensive Income - Equity Instrument Investment Without an Active Market	Analogy Listed and Over-the-counter Company Law	·Discount for lack of marketability (25% as of 2022.12.31 and 2021.12.31)	·The higher the discount for lack of marketability is, the lower the fair value is.

(5) For 2022 and 2021, there is no transfer in the fair value hierarchy of the financial assets.

(XVIII) Financial risk management

1. General description

The consolidated company is exposed to the following risks due to use of financial instruments:

(1) Credit risk

(2) Liquidity risk

(3) Market Risk

The Note presents the risk exposure information of the above risks, the goal, policy, and program as how the consolidated company would measure and manage these risks. For further qualitative disclosure of this information please refer to relevant Notes on the financial statements.

2. Framework of the risk management

The financial management department of the consolidated company provides services to all business units. It organizes and coordinates to operate in the domestic and international financial market, as well as to monitor and manage the financial risks of the operation of the company by analyzing the risk exposure by the risk level and the breath of the risks. The consolidated company avoids risk exposure through derivative financial instruments, in order to mitigate the impact of the risks. The application of derivative financial instruments is confined by the policy approved by the Board of Directors. The policy is the written principles for the foreign exchange risk, interest risk, credit risk, the application of derivative and non-derivative financial instruments, as well as the investment by the remaining liquid funds. The internal auditors continue to review compliance of the policy and the limit of the risk exposure.

3. Credit risk

Credit risk refers to the risk that the customers or counterparty default on the contractual obligations and result in financial loss to the consolidated company; it is mainly from the receivables from customers and investment in securities.

(1) Accounts receivable and other Receivables

The consolidated company adopts a policy of dealing only with counterparties with an outstanding reputation, and to secure collateral, if necessary, to mitigate the risk of financial loss due to default payment. The consolidated company uses other public obtainable financial information and the historical transaction records with the major clients to perform a credit rating, and continue to monitor the credit risk exposures and the credit rating of the counterparties. The consolidated company also allocated total transactions amounts to customers with satisfied credit ratings and had its risk management committee to review and approve credit ratings of the counterparties annually to control credit risk exposure.

The consolidated company does not hold any collateral or other credit enhancing tools to avoid the credit risk of financial assets.

(2) Investment

Credit risk from bank deposits and other financial instruments is regularly monitored by the financial department of the consolidated company. As the counterparties are banks with good credit quality and financial institutions of investment grade or above, and government agencies, there is no significant compliance concern or credit risk.

(3) Guarantee

As per the policy of the consolidated company, it may only provide endorsement/guarantee to companies it has business with, companies it directly or indirectly has more than 50% of the voting shares, and companies it directly or indirectly holds more than 90% of the voting shares. As of December 31, 2022 and 2021, the consolidated company does not provide any endorsement/guarantee to other third parties.

4. Liquidity risk

Liquidity risks refer to risks the consolidated company may not render cash or other financial assets to settle financial liability and fulfill relevant obligation. The approach of the consolidated company adopts to manage liquidity is to ensure the consolidated company, in regular circumstances and under pressure, would have sufficient liquidity fund to pay for liability that is due, and not to suffer from unacceptable losses or risk that its reputation would be damaged.

The consolidated company manages and maintains adequate cash and cash equivalents to fund the operation and to mitigate the impact on cash fluctuation. The management of the consolidated company monitors the usage of bank credit terms to ensure the terms of the loan contract being complied accordingly. For the unused credit line of the consolidated company as of December 31, 2022 and 2021, please refer to Note 6 (8) and 6 (9) for details.

5. Market Risk

Market risk refers to the impact on revenues or values of the financial instruments held by the consolidated company due to fluctuation of the market prices, such as the changes in foreign exchange rate, interest rate and prices in equity instruments. The goal of market risk management is to control the market risk exposure to be within the bearable limits and to optimize the rate of investment.

In order to manage the market risk, the consolidated company engages in the transaction of derivative instruments, if necessary, and thus incurred financial liability. The conductions of transactions are in compliance with the risk management policy.

(1) Foreign exchange risk

The consolidated company is exposed to exchange rate risk resulting from the sales, purchase and borrowing transactions denominated in currencies other than functional currency. Functional currencies of the Group are mainly NTD, there are also Euro, USD, GBP, and RMB. Major transactions are carried out in NTD, Euro, USD, GBP, and RMB.

For accounts receivable denominated in currencies other than functional currency held by the consolidated company, the gains and losses incurred from fluctuation of exchange rate are offset by the exchange gains and losses of short term loans denominated in foreign currency. To lower the risk of the consolidated company is exposed to due to exchange rate.

The consolidated company constantly controls fluctuation of the exchange rate and uses conservative exchange rate as basis of quotation to carefully review fluctuation of the current and future exchange rate. It also employs the foreign forward exchange contract as hedging instruments to avoid consequences brought by fluctuation of the exchange rate.

Interest from the borrowing is denominated using that of the principal. Currencies from the cash flow are the same, mainly NTD, Euro, USD, and GBP.

The consolidated company and other subsidiaries do not adopt any approach to mitigate the risks on their investment.

(2) Interest rate risk

For risk exposure on interest rate of the borrowing, the consolidated company would predict the trend of future interest rates to decide what proportion to be fixed rate to mitigate the risk.

The bank borrowings of the consolidated company are all with floating interest rates. The fluctuation of interest rates within the expected borrowing period should be within the range acceptable by the company. Therefore, no measure has been adopted yet to proactively mitigate the risk.

(XIX) Capital Management

The goal of capital management by the consolidated company is to maintain the capability to continue operating a successful business, and to continue to provide rewards to the shareholders and benefits to the interested parties, and to maintain the best capital structure to lower costs of capital.

To maintain or adjust capital structure, the consolidated company can adjust dividends paid to stockholders, shares returned to shareholders for capital deduction, new stock issuance, or assets sold to liability settlement.

As with its peers, the consolidated company controls capital using debt /capital ratio as a basis. The ratio is calculated by net liability divided by total capital. Net liability is total liability less cash and cash equivalents listed on the balance sheet. Total capital is all equity components (e.g. capital, additional paid-in capital, retained earnings, and other equity) plus net liability.

		2022.12.31	2021.12.31
